

Port: Novorossiysk, Russia

Location: Novorossiysk is situated in the N of Novorossiysk Bay in the NE part of the Black Sea.

General overview: The port consists of two harbours, Sheskhari Oil Harbour and the dry cargo port. The port specialises in handling grain, sugar, metal, scrap, mineral fertilisers, refrigeration, containers, timber and crude oil cargoes. The Yuzhnaya Ozereyevka CPC-R Marine Terminal is approx 16km SW from the entrance to Novorossiysk Bay and approx 2.6nm offshore. The terminal consists of two SPM's for loading crude into VLCC's.

Traffic figures: Approx 3,500 vessels, 155,000,000t of cargo and 730,000TEU handled annually.

Max size: LOA 250m, draught 13.1m. Max 100,000DWT.

Ro-Ro facilities:

Terminal	Berth	Length, meters	Depth, meters	Use
Commercial Port Western Dock	14	168	7.00	Ro-Ro
NUTEP	38a	270	-	Breakbulk, Ro-Ro
	39a	270	9.6
	39b	87	10.4	